

HOUGHTON

Garden Season Ticket Terms and Conditions

- A garden season ticket costs £30 and includes unlimited entry during opening hours to the walled garden, old stables, model soldier museum, deer park, shop, and café.
- It does not include entry to the sculpture park and house; however, ticket holders can upgrade their garden season ticket for an additional £12 on the day if they wish to visit them.
- Only the named ticket holder can use the garden season ticket. Houghton Hall will keep and cancel without refund any garden season tickets used by unauthorised persons.
- Ticket holders must show garden season tickets on the day of their visit. We cannot accept photocopies or photographs of their ticket.
- Garden season tickets are valid during normal opening hours for the 2023 season and cannot be used for special events.
- Houghton Hall reserves the right to change their opening hours due to unforeseen circumstances or events. Please see opening times before visiting.
- Houghton Hall can refuse or withdraw entry to any ticket holder behaving unreasonably or abusing the conditions on which the ticket has been granted.
- Garden season tickets are non-refundable.
- If a garden season ticket is misplaced, Houghton Hall will cancel the original ticket and reissue the ticket holder with one other free of charge.
- If you have obtained your garden day ticket as part of your RHS membership on a no pay basis, you will need to pay the full amount of £30 for your garden season ticket.
